

Tilburg Institute for Law, Technology, and Society (TILT)

TILT studies emerging technologies and their impact on the individual and society, recognizing the interplay between technology, regulation and fundamental values & human rights.

TILT NEWSLETTER

Conference special

TILTing Perspectives 2017 'Regulating a connected world'

February 27, 2017

Tilburg Institute for Law, Technology, and Society

Keynote speakers

Conference opening: Sally Wyatt (University of Maastricht)

Privacy: Christopher Slobogin (Vanderbilt University) and Gary Marx (MIT)

Health: Flis Henwood (University of Brighton) and Irene Schluender (TMF)

Intellectual Property: Maciej Szpunar (AC at the CJEU, University of Silesia) and John Golden (University of Texas)

Data Science: Sean McDonald (FrontlineSMS) and Solon Barocas (Microsoft Research)

Sally Wyatt

Christopher Slobogin

Flis Henwood

Irene Schluender

Maciej Szpunar

John Golden

Sean McDonald

Solon Barocas

Read more about the keynote speakers →

Program and conference flyer

The conference will be held during three full days and includes 7/8 parallel sessions and over 120 speakers. Moreover, there will be a GikII workshop and a Mirror room. We will also grant the 'IAPP Best Privacy Paper Award'.

GikII workshop

On Friday 19 May we will host a GikII style Workshop. GikII brings together the worlds of law, technology and popular culture. GikII represents serious academic scholarship, but with a twist.

Mirror room

We are proud to present The Mirror room. When you enter the 'We are data Mirror room', you step into a magical area. You experience fun and exciting things; but it's also a smart area, where visitors are watched and monitored without them knowing.

Conference flyer

Alumni track

The Alumni track which will be held on 19 May 2017, is designed for TILT MA alumni and TILT PAO alumni (practitioners). This track comprises refresher courses on the General Data Protection Regulation, by and for alumni. The track offers a form of post academic education as well as a possibility to meet other TILT alumni.

GDPR

The day is organized around implications of the General Data Protection Regulation. In the first session prof. Lokke Moerel and prof. Paul de Hert will share their insights on the impact of the GDPR, both from an academic and a practical perspective. After these introductions, four TILT alumni will shed light on the practical impact of specific provisions of the GDPR. Rachel Marbus, privacy officer at KPN, will discuss privacy governance. Mark Wijnhoven, Global Legal and Privacy lead at Philips, will address Data Protection Impact Assessments. Simone Fennell, consultant at Privacy Company, will address the ins and outs of data breach notification. And Aleksandrina Banusheva, expert at the Commission for Personal Data Protection in Bulgaria, will discuss the role of Data Protection Authorities under the GDPR.

NOvA credit points

Alumni participating in this track will be entitled to NOvA credit points (Certificate and Maintaining Professional Competence of the Dutch Order of Lawyers (Nederlandse Orde van Advocaten) for providers of courses to lawyers in the context of the policy of maintaining professional competence.

Alumni track flyer

Read more about the Alumni track →

Location, registration and fees

TILTing Perspectives 2017 'Regulating a connected world' will be held at the campus of Tilburg University, Tilburg, the Netherlands. Nearest airports are Schiphol and Eindhoven airport.

Registration and fees

All participants wishing to attend the conference must pay a registration fee; this also applies to e.g. panel discussants. Registration fees include: access to the academic conference sessions, coffee/tea/lunch during three conference days, the conference dinner on 17 May and drinks on 19 May.

- Early Bird (until 19 April, 2017): € 250
- Regular fee (after 19 April 2017): € 300
- Students (including PhD students): € 50 (excluding: conference dinner on 17 May. excluding social event on 18 May)
- Students (including PhD students): € 100 (including conference dinner on 17 May, excluding social event on 18 May)

Alumni track

TILT Alumni (PAO and MA students): € 150

This is a special one day fee to participate in the Alumni track on 19 May; if you wish to attend the whole conference, the regular fee is applicable.

Conference website →

Conference sponsors

Unsubscribe

Website

+31 (0)13 466 3515

Warandelaan 2
5037 AB Tilburg

