The final assignment of the real options module consists of choosing one of the papers below and writing it down in your own words. Also, something should be added that is not in the original paper, like a more extensive derivation of (one of) mathematical expressions, a numerical exercise, finding a mistake in the paper, propose an extension of the model, etc...

- One of the remaining chapters of the Dixit/Pindyck book, or: