CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1.1 Definitions

1. The concepts mentioned in these Regulations, insofar as they also occur in the Structure Regulations, shall have the meaning assigned to them by the Structure Regulations.
2. In addition, the following definitions apply to the School Regulations:
The Act: Dutch Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het Hoger onderwijs en Wetenschappelijk onderzoek);
CAO: the Collective Labour Agreement of Dutch Universities;
LRB: University Labor Representation Board (LO): the institution-related consultative body referred to in the CAO;
3. Wherever these Regulations state “he/him, “she/her” may also be read.

PART II
MANAGEMENT AND ORGANIZATION OF THE SCHOOL

CHAPTER 2 THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SCHOOL

Article 2.1 The Dean of the School

1. The Dean is the Head of the School.
2. The Dean is to be appointed, suspended, and dismissed by the Executive Board. The Dean's term of appointment is to be determined by the Executive Board
3. Before appointing or dismissing the Dean, the Executive Board shall hear in confidence the School Council of the School concerned on the proposed appointment or dismissal decision. Chapter 3 of these Regulations does not apply. Hearings are to take place at such a point in time that they can have a substantial influence on the decision-making.
4. Compelling reasons may constitute grounds for the Dean to be dismissed before the end of their term of appointment.
5. The Dean has the status of professor.
6. The Dean is accountable to the Executive Board and shall provide the Executive Board with the requested information about the School.

Article 2.2 General duties and powers of the Dean

1. Without prejudice to the Executive Board's administrative powers and the provisions laid down by or pursuant to these Regulations, the Dean is responsible for the overall management of the School. The Dean is also responsible for the administration and the organization of the School regarding education and research.
2. The Dean shall cooperate in the administration of the University by, among other things, consulting with the Executive Board about the institutional plan and the budget.

Article 2.3 Duties of the Dean: School regulations

1. Without prejudice to Article 8 of the Structure Regulations, the Dean shall adopt School Regulations for the purpose of laying down additional rules on the administration and organization of the School.
2. The School Regulations are subject to the approval of the Executive Board.
3. In case the School Regulations have not been adopted, or only in part, within a period to be specified by the Executive Board, the Executive Board shall adopt the School Regulations or their missing part(s).

Article 2.4 Other duties and powers of the Dean

1. Without prejudice to Article 8 of the Structure Regulations, the Dean is also responsible for
  - a. adopting the Education and Examination Regulations (hereinafter “the EER”), as referred to in Article 7.13 of the Act, as well as regularly reviewing the EER,
  - b. adopting general guidelines for research,

Resigning members are immediately eligible for reappointment.
2. Members occupying a seat that has become vacant early shall resign at the time when the person in whose place they have been elected would have to resign, without prejudice to the provisions in Article 7.3, paragraph two.

Article 7.3 Termination of membership

1. Membership of the School Council ends through:
  - a. retirement by rotation;
  - b. death;
  - c. written termination;
  - d. leaving the university community;
  - e. changing to another section;
  - f. temporary resignation due to maternity or parental leave referred to in paragraph two;
  - g. reinstatement, pursuant to the paragraph two, of the person who had temporarily resigned, referred to under f., and in whose place the member had been elected.

2. A member of the School Council who, as an employee, is granted maternity leave or a member who is granted parental leave is therefore authorized to temporarily resign as such for the duration of this leave. At the end of the leave, they shall automatically be reinstated. The same authorization also applies to a member on maternity leave who is not employed by the university. In that case, the provisions concerning the start and end of the maternity leave in employment shall be applied accordingly for the exercise of that authorization.
3. The termination referred to in paragraph one under c is done by written notification to the chair of the School Council. The Dean and the polling station referred to in the Election Regulations receive a copy of the termination.

Article 7.4 Chair and deputy chair

1. The School Council chooses a chair from among its members or otherwise.
2. The School Council chooses a deputy chair from among its members.
3. If the chair of the School Council does not also serve on this Council, s/he has an advisory vote in meetings.

Article 7.5 Administrative Secretary

The Dean provides for the administrative and management support of the School Council; s/he appoints an Administrative Secretary to that end.

Article 7.6 Legal protection

1. As regards the School Council, the Dean ensures that Council members' position in the School is not adversely effected on account of their membership. The first sentence applies, mutatis mutandis, regarding candidate members and former members.
2. The termination, other than at the student's own request, of the employment of a person working at the School may not be related to the nomination of candidates for membership, membership or former membership of the council. Any termination of employment contrary to the provisions of this paragraph shall be null and void.

CHAPTER 8 DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE SCHOOL COUNCIL

Article 8.1 Duties of the School Council

1. The School Council promotes openness, accessibility, and mutual consultation in the School to the best of its ability.
2. The School Council shall not tolerate discrimination in the School on any ground whatsoever and shall promote in particular the equal treatment of men and women as well as the inclusion of persons with disabilities or chronic illnesses and persons of ethnic minorities.
3. The School Council also has the duty of weighing the views and interests of staff and students in the context of the objectives of education and research in the School with regard to policy and decision-making.

Article 8.2 General powers

Without prejudice to Article 8.7, in its dealings with the Dean of the School, the School Council is entitled to exercise the right of consent and right to be consulted entitled to the University Council in matters that are of particular concern to the School and provided that the relevant powers have also been assigned to the Dean.

Article 8.3 Right of consent

1. Without prejudice to Article 8.7, the Dean must obtain the prior consent of the School Council for every decision made by the Dean with respect to at least the adoption or amendment of:
  - a. the School Regulations referred to in Article 15 of the Structure Regulations,
  - b. the Education and Examination Regulations referred to in Article 7.13 of the Act, with the exception of the subjects specified in paragraph two, under a through g and v, and with the exception of the requirements referred to in Article 7.28, paragraphs four and five, and Article 7.30b, paragraph two, of the Act.
  - c. The underlying principles and methodology of the School's financial allocation model, and
  - d. a plan for a School project involving an investment amount of €500,000 or more from School reserves for the entire four-year budgetary planning period.
2. Without prejudice to the provisions in Article 8.7, the Dean furthermore requires the prior consent of the School Council for every decision that he makes regarding the School's Strategic Plan.

Article 8.4 Right to be consulted

1. Without prejudice to the provisions in Article 8.7, the Dean gives the School Council the opportunity, in a timely fashion, to issue advice and hold consultations on:
  - a. matters pertaining to the continued existence and proper running of the School, as well as
  - b. the School's budget.

2. Furthermore, without prejudice to the provisions in Article 8.7, the School Council is given the opportunity, in a timely fashion, to give advice and to consult on proposed decisions:
  - a. the education and research plan;
  - b. the procedure for the appointing of professors;
  - c. the annual accounts;
  - d. the annual report;
  - e. the transfer of the control over a part of the School;
  - f. entering into, making an important change in, or terminating a long-term collaboration with another School or institution of higher or academic education;
  - g. a plan for a School project involving an investment amount of up to €500,000 from School reserves for the entire four-year budgetary planning period.

Article 8.5 Powers of the personnel section

1. With regard to matters that particularly concern the School and in so far as the relevant powers have been assigned to the Dean, the Dean shall ensure that the staff delegation of the School Council is given the opportunity in good time to issue advice to the Dean and to consult on proposed measures with regard to:
  - a. the manner in which the employment and service conditions are applied in the School,

  - b. the manner in which the general human resources policy is implemented in the School,

  - c. matters concerning working conditions in the School,

  - d. the organization and operational procedures in the School, and

  - e. the technical and economic processes in the School.

2. The staff delegation of the School Council is authorized to make proposals to Dean of the School in the matters mentioned in paragraph one.

3. The Dean must obtain the prior consent of the staff delegation for every measure the Dean is authorized to take and on which the staff delegation has given advice under paragraph one.

Article 8.6 Right of initiative

The School Council is authorized to make proposals and state its position regarding all matters concerning the School. Within three months of the School Council having made a proposal referred to in the previous sentence, the Executive Board shall submit to the School Council a written, reasoned response to that proposal in the form of a motion. Before submitting the response referred to in the previous sentence, the Dean shall give the School Council at least one opportunity to consult the Dean on his/her motion.

Article 8.7 Exception to the powers

The provisions of Articles 8.2 through 8.5 do not apply insofar as the matter in question has already been substantively regulated in regulations laid down by or pursuant to any law or in a collective labor agreement, or insofar as, pursuant to the Consultation Protocol to the Collective Labour Agreement, consultations on the matter in question are already being held by or on behalf of the Executive Board with the University Labor Representation Board or with the University Council on the basis of the provisions of the regulations for the University Council.

Article 8.8 Special powers of the personnel section

1. The personnel section of the School Council shall be given the opportunity, in a timely fashion, to issue advice on the requirements that a School's Managing Director to be appointed must meet.
2. If a selection committee is set up for a School's Managing Director to be appointed, a member of the personnel section of the School Council shall sit on it.
3. The School Council shall be informed as soon as possible of the proposed appointment of the School's Managing Director.

Article 8.9 Procedure for right of consent

1. The Dean shall submit the decision to be taken in writing to the School Council, together with an overview of the reasons for the decision and the expected consequences.
2. Before the School Council, or the relevant section of the School Council, decides on the requested consent, the matter in question must have been discussed at least once in a consultation meeting as referred to in Article 11.1.

3. Within one month after the consultation meeting referred to in the previous paragraph has taken place, the School Council shall decide whether to grant the requested consent and shall notify the Dean of this decision in writing as soon as possible.
4. If the School Council has not reached a decision within the set period, consent for the proposed decision shall be deemed to have been obtained.

Article 8.10 Consultation obligation after denial of consent

1. If the School Council or the relevant section of the School Council does not give the required consent to the proposed decision, the Dean shall consult the School Council again.
2. After the consultation referred to in paragraph one, the Dean shall decide:
  - a. to uphold the proposal, or
  - b. to submit the amended proposal to the School Council; or
  - c. to withdraw the proposal.The Dean shall notify the School Council of his/her decision as soon as possible, but not later than within three months. If this notification is not made within three months, the proposal shall lapse.
3. If, after the consultation referred to in the previous paragraph, the Dean announces that he/she wishes to uphold the proposal, the Dean or the School Council shall establish that there is a dispute and shall report this to the Executive Board within four weeks. After notification, the procedure in Article 8.15 will be followed.
4. The Dean may not take a final decision on the matter that has been reported as a dispute before the dispute has been resolved or before the Participation Arbitration Committee for Higher Education has issued a decision.

Article 8.11 Dispute over interpretation regarding the right of consent

1. If the School Council expresses the opinion that the Dean should have submitted a decision or proposed decision to the School Council for consent, the School Council shall inform the Dean, stating its reasons.
2. The Dean consults with the School Council.

If, after the consultation, the Dean announces not to submit the decision or proposed decision to the School Council for consent, the Council shall consider whether it maintains its position and shall notify the Dean of this within two weeks.
3. If the School Council notifies the Dean, in accordance with the previous paragraph, that it maintains its position, the Dean or the School Council shall establish that there is a dispute and shall report this to the Executive Board within four weeks. After notification, the procedure in Article 8.15 will be followed.

4. In the event of a dispute, the Dean may not implement the decision in question until the dispute has been resolved or the Participation Arbitration Committee for Higher Education has issued a decision.

Article 8.12 Procedure for right to be consulted

1. Advice shall be requested at such a time that it may have a substantial influence on the decision to be taken. The Dean shall submit the decision to be taken in writing to the School Council, together with an overview of the reasons for the decision and the expected consequences.
2. The School Council shall be given the opportunity to consult with the Dean before issuing its advice.
3. The School Council shall be informed in writing as soon as possible but no later than within three weeks of the manner in which the advice issued will be followed up.
4. If the Dean wishes to depart in whole or in part from the advice of the School Council with regard to a proposal as referred to in Article 8.4 or Article 8.5, paragraph one, the School Council shall be notified of this in writing, stating the reasons. The School Council shall be given the opportunity to hold further consultations before the Dean makes a final decision.
5. The School Council and the Dean shall then inform each other within three weeks whether their original positions will be maintained after a reconsideration of interests.
6. If the School Council and the Dean maintain their positions, the School Council or the Dean shall establish that there is a dispute and shall report this to the Executive Board within four weeks. After notification, the procedure in Article 8.15 will be followed.
7. In the event of a dispute, the implementation of the relevant decision shall be suspended by four weeks, unless the School Council has no objections to the immediate implementation of the decision.

Article 8.13 Dispute over interpretation regarding the right to be consulted

1. If the School Council expresses the opinion that the Dean should have submitted a decision or proposed decision for advice, the School Council shall inform the Dean of this, stating reasons.
2. The Dean consults with the School Council. If, after the consultation, the Dean announces not to submit the decision or proposed decision to the School Council for advice, the School Council shall consider whether it maintains its position and shall notify the Dean of this within two weeks.

3. If the School Council notifies the Dean that it maintains its position, the Dean or the School Council shall establish that there is a dispute and shall report this to the Executive Board within four weeks. After notification, the procedure in Article 8.15 will be followed.
4. In the event of a dispute, the implementation of the relevant decision shall be suspended for four weeks, unless the School Council has no objections to the immediate implementation of the decision.

Article 8.14 Procedure for other disputes

In the event of a dispute referred to in Article 39, paragraph one of the Structure Regulations, for which no specific procedure is included in these Regulations, the Dean and the School Council shall make a serious attempt to resolve the dispute among themselves before reporting the dispute to the Executive Board. After notification, the procedure in Article 8.15 will be followed.

Article 8.15 Procedure after reporting a dispute

The Dean and the School Council may submit disputes as referred to in these Regulations and/or Article 39, paragraph one of the Structure Regulations to the Participation Arbitration Committee as referred to in Article 38a of the Structure Regulations. Article 39 of the Structure Regulations applies or applies by analogy.

CHAPTER 9 OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES OF THE SCHOOL COUNCIL

Article 9.1 Facilities and training

1. The Dean shall give the School Council and its members the opportunity to perform their duties properly and shall allow the School Council to use the facilities that are at his/her disposal and that the Council reasonably requires for the performance of its duties.
2. The Dean shall give the members of the School Council the opportunity to receive the training that the members of the Council require for the performance of their duties for an amount of time to be determined jointly by the Dean and the Council. University staff shall be given the opportunity to receive this training during working hours and without loss of pay.
3. With due observance of the provisions of Article 46 of the Structure Regulations, the Dean shall lay down regulations with regard to:
  - a. the exemption from work of members of the personnel section;
  - b. training;
  - c. the budget of the School Council, as included in the School's budget.
4. The School Council shall meet as much as possible during normal working hours.
5. This Article shall apply by analogy to the Program Committees.

Article 9.2 *Repealed

Article 9.3 Experts

1. The School Council may invite one or more experts to attend a meeting of the School Council with a view to discussing a particular subject.
2. The persons referred to in the previous paragraph shall be provided with the agenda of the meeting concerned and the documents they require in a timely fashion.
3. An expert may also be invited to issue written advice.
4. If costs are involved in inviting an expert, they shall in principle be charged to the School Council's budget.

Article 9.4 Right to be informed

1. At the beginning of the academic year, the Dean shall provide the School Council in writing with the basic data about the composition of the management team, the organization within the School, and the main points of the policy already adopted.

The Dean shall inform the School Council in writing at least once a year of the policy he or she pursued in the preceding year and of the policy intentions for the coming year regarding the School in the area of finance, organization, and education. The Dean shall promptly notify the School Council of intentions regarding matters described in the School's Strategic Plan.

Furthermore, the Dean shall in good time and of his or her own accord provide the School Council with all the information it may need to fulfill its duties reasonably and fairly.

2. The information and data shall be provided in writing if so requested.
3. The Dean shall provide information as soon as possible but not later than three weeks after the request of the School Council has reached the Dean. Exceeding this period shall only be possible in exceptional cases and must be notified to the School Council, stating reasons, before the expiry of the said period.
4. The School Council shall inform the Dean in a timely fashion of its wish to receive additional information in or before a meeting.

Article 9.5     Duty of confidentiality

1. The members of the School Council as well as the experts consulted in accordance with Article 9.3 shall be obliged to observe confidentiality with regard to all matters they learn in their capacity for which either the Dean or the School Council has imposed confidentiality or the confidential nature of which they should have understood.
2. The person imposing confidentiality shall also inform the School Council which written or oral information is subject to confidentiality and for how long, as well as whether there are any persons with regard to whom confidentiality does not need to be observed.
When the reasons for confidentiality have lapsed, the person who imposed the confidentiality shall inform the persons concerned as soon as possible.
3. If, in the opinion of the majority of the School Council, a member of the School Council is guilty of a breach of the duty of confidentiality imposed in accordance with the first paragraph of this Article, or if the Dean is of the opinion that a member has not complied with an obligation of confidentiality imposed by the Dean, the chairperson of the School Council shall issue a warning to the person concerned. If a second breach of confidentiality is established with regard to the same member of the School Council, the person concerned shall be excluded for a period of three months from those meetings or parts thereof that are confidential and from the provision of information subject to confidentiality.
4. The duty of confidentiality does not expire with the termination of School Council membership or with the termination of the connection between the person concerned and the School.

Article 9.6 Duties of the Secretary

1. The secretary shall be responsible for convening the School Council, drawing up the agenda and the minutes of the meetings, as well as for the correspondence and the management of the documents intended for and issued by the School Council.
2. The agenda and accompanying documents drawn up for a meeting shall be sent to the members at least two weeks prior to the meeting.
3. The secretary shall write the minutes of each meeting of the School Council. The secretary shall send these minutes to the members of the School Council for approval.
4. The School Council shall ensure that the agendas and reports of its meetings are sent to the Dean, and any committees referred to in Articles 9.8 and 9.9 and that, for the benefit of interested persons, these documents are made available for inspection at a generally accessible location at the School.

Article 9.7 Annual report

The School Council shall annually issue a written report on its activities and it shall ensure that all parties involved in the School can learn of the report.

Article 9.8 Advisory Committees

1. The Dean shall give staff and students the opportunity, if desired, to set up a staff committee or separate committees for different staff categories or groups and a student committee. Such a committee is authorized, either upon request or on its own initiative, to advise the School Council on matters that particularly concern the committee in question.
2. At the request of a committee, the School Council shall notify the Dean of a written advice as referred to in the first paragraph. The provisions of Article 8.6 shall apply by analogy to such written advice
3. As a rule, the Dean or a member of the management team shall attend the committee meetings in order to provide the necessary information and, if necessary or desirable, a clarification. The Dean or member of the management team may be assisted or replaced by advisors.
4. At least once a year, the School Council shall offer the committees the opportunity to consult with the School Council on matters that are of particular concern to the committees involved.

Article 9.9 Council Committees

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of the previous Article, the School Council may set up committees to prepare matters to be dealt with by the School Council. Such a committee cannot exercise any powers of the School Council, nor legally act on behalf of the School Council.
2. As a rule, the Dean or a member of the management team shall attend the committee meetings in order to provide the necessary information and, if necessary or desirable, a clarification. The Dean or member of the management team may be assisted or replaced by advisors.

Article 9.10 Rules of Procedure

1. With due observance of the provisions of these Regulations, the School Council may draw up regulations for internal matters.
2. The School Council shall in any event regulate the manner in which the Dean shall distribute resources made available to it and any committees referred to in Article 9.8 and 9.9.

CHAPTER 10 MEETINGS OF THE SCHOOL COUNCIL

Article 10.1 Meetings

1. For the purpose of the performance of its duties, the School Council shall in any event meet in the following cases:
  - a. as soon as possible prior to a consultation meeting to be held as referred to in Article 11.1;
  - b. at the request of the chairperson of the School Council;
  - c. at the request of at least three members of the School Council.
2. With regard to the meeting referred to in paragraph 1 under b, the chairperson shall determine the time and place.

A meeting as referred to in paragraph 1 under c shall be held within two weeks after the request has been received by the chairperson.

Article 10.2 Quorum

1. Valid decisions can only be taken if more than half of the members are present. Vacancies shall not be taken into account when determining the number of members.
2. If the required number of members is not present, the matters concerned shall be discussed and decided upon at the next meeting, irrespective of the number of members present.

Article 10.3 Decision-making

1. The School Council shall not decide on matters submitted to the School Council by the Dean until the Dean has been given the opportunity to provide a clarification and, if necessary, to consult with the School Council unless the Dean and the School Council have agreed otherwise.
2. Unless a different majority is required pursuant to statutory provisions or provisions in these Regulations, decisions are taken by a simple majority of the number of valid votes cast, whereby a blank vote is not considered a valid vote. If the chairperson is not elected from among the members of the School Board, he or she shall not have the right to vote.
3. Voting shall take place by ballot if requested by at least one of the members present at the meeting.
4. The members of the council shall vote independently and not bound by any instructions.

Article 10.4 Tied vote

1. In the event of a tied vote, the chairman shall suspend the meeting. After the suspension, the deliberations shall be reopened, after which a new vote shall be cast.
2. After the deliberations referred to in the previous paragraph, it may be decided, in derogation of the provisions of that paragraph, to postpone the discussion of the agenda item.
3. If the votes in the second ballot, whether or not after postponement, are again tied, the proposal shall be deemed not to have been adopted.

Article 10.5 Public access to meetings

1. The meetings of the School Council shall be public, unless the School Council decides otherwise in view of the nature of the matter.
A decision to hold a closed meeting must be substantiated.
2. If during a particular meeting or any part thereof, a predominantly personal interest of one of the School Council's members is at issue, the School Council may decide that the member in question will not participate in that meeting or that part of the meeting. The School Council shall then also decide that the matter concerned will be discussed in a closed meeting.
3. With regard to what is discussed in a closed meeting or part of a meeting, the persons present will observe confidentiality in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.5.
4. A confidential report will be made of a closed meeting or part of a meeting.
5. The chairperson decides in what terms a decision taken in a confidential meeting or part of a meeting will be made public, unless confidentiality is imposed in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.5.

CHAPTER 11 CONSULTATION MEETINGS OF THE SCHOOL COUNCIL & DEAN

Article 11.1 Consultation meetings

1. As a rule, the Dean and the School Council consult six times a year in a meeting, hereinafter referred to as the consultation meeting.
2. The Dean and the School Council will also meet if, stating its reasons, the Dean, the School Council, the section of the School Council elected from among and by the staff, or the section of the School Council elected from among and by the students requests such a meeting to be convened.
3. At least twice a year, the Dean shall give the School Council the opportunity to meet and discuss the School's general course of affairs.
4. The School Council is authorized to invite the Dean at least twice a year to discuss the proposed policy on the basis of an agenda drawn up by the School Council.
5. During the consultation meeting, the School's matters shall be discussed, with regard to which either the Dean or the School Council deems consultation desirable or with regard to which consultation between the Dean and the School Council is required by virtue of the Structure Regulations or these Regulations.

Article 11.2 Consultation meeting operational procedures

1. The Dean may be assisted by advisors.
2. The meeting shall be chaired by the chairperson of the School Council or his or her deputy, unless other arrangements have been made with the Dean in this respect.
3. The agenda of the meeting shall contain matters that have been reported by the Dean, the School Council, or one of the delegations prior to the consultation. A report shall be made of each consultation meeting.
4. The chairperson shall suspend a consultation meeting if the Dean or the School Council deems separate deliberation on a particular matter desirable.
5. The Dean and/or the School Council may invite one or more experts to attend a meeting to discuss a specific subject. The provisions of Article 9.3 apply by analogy.
6. The provisions of Chapter 10 apply by analogy.

PART IV
OTHER PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 12      LEGAL PROTECTION

Article 12.1    Central Disputes and Complaints Desk

1. The Central Disputes and Complaints Desk is an accessible and unambiguous facility, established in accordance with Article 7.59a of the Act. A person concerned may submit a complaint and an appeal or objection to this Desk, either online or in writing, about a decision taken by a university body or the absence of such a decision on the basis of the Act or of regulations, internal or otherwise, based on it.
2. A “person concerned” as referred to in paragraph one is understood to mean a student, a prospective student, a former student, an external student, a prospective external student, or a former external student.
3. Complaints, appeals, and objections will be dealt with in accordance with the procedure as laid down in Chapter 4 of the Administration and Management Regulations.

CHAPTER 13 FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 13.1 Entry into force/repeal of previous School Regulations

1. These Regulations shall enter into force the day after the Executive Board has adopted them.
2. With the entry into force of these Regulations, the previous School Regulations as adopted by the Executive Board shall lapse.
