

Major-Minor in Work and Organizational Psychology

As a work and organizational psychologist, you study what makes people thrive in the work context. You will develop a clear understanding of how to motivate employees, teams, and leaders.

Courses Work and Organizational Psychology

Work Psychology

Block 2

6 ECTS

In this course you learn how to select best people, train and motivate them and ensure that they are thriving in the workplace.

Organizational Psychology

Block 3

6 ECTS

This course presents the most important topics, theories, and research findings within the field of Organizational Psychology.

Diversity and Inclusion at Work

Block 4

6 ECTS

In this course you will learn about the complexity associated with a diverse group of people working together and how organizations can be inclusive for people from all backgrounds.

Applied Work and Organizational Psychology

Block 1

6 ECTS – Only Major

This course provides you with the theoretical and practical consulting tools to analyze a real-life organizational problem and propose initial strategies to address it.

 = minor

 +  = major

Subsequent Master's programs

- MSC Work and Organizational Psychology
- MSC Economic Psychology
- Research Master in Social and Behavioral Sciences
- Research Master in Psychology: Individual Differences and Assessment
- Double degree in Cross Cultural Economic Psychology

Career perspectives

School of Social and Behavioral Sciences