Explanation program

All Master's programs have information sessions during which teachers, students and education coordinators will tell you all about their Master's program.

Did you know that the programs: Law & Technology, International Business Law, International Business Taxation and Art and Media Studies offer the option to take the full program online? Therefore, you can attend sessions for these programs on campus and online. In the overview, these sessions are marked as 'hybrid sessions'.

Please note that only these four programs offer online sessions. If you want to attend sessions of other Master's programs, you will have to travel to campus.

We also offer other sessions and activities. Please see below for a brief explanation.

SESSIONS

Application and admission Economic Psychology & Work and Organizational Psychology

Do you have questions about application and admission for the Master's programs Economic Psychology or Work and Organizational Psychology? Please join this session and ask all your questions to the education coordinators.

Application and admission for international students

Are you interested in applying to Tilburg University? Do you want to know more about the admission requirements and application procedure? If so, this is the right session for you! Apart from hearing all the ins and outs about our application and admission procedure, you can ask our International Admissions Coordinators any questions you might have.

Application and admission Positive Psychology and Well-being & Clinical Neuropsychology

Do you have questions about application and admission for the Master's programs Positive Psychology and Well-being or Clinical Neuropsychology? During this session you have the opportunity to ask our education coordinators all your questions.

Life as an international student

Join us for this interactive session with our students. Gain valuable insights into international student life at Tilburg University, meet current students from different study programs, and ask all your questions about studying in the Netherlands.

Pre-Master in Economics and Management after Dutch hbo

Are you doing or have you finished hbo and are you interested in pursuing a Master's degree? Visit this session in which the hbo Pre-Masters in Economics and Management are explained. You will get information about the admission procedure, the content of the Pre-Masters and the advantages of continuing your studies after hbo. Please note that no information about the Pre-Masters is given in the sessions of the Master's programs themselves.

Sociology in Tilburg: all different options within Sociology

During this information session, you will explore all the options available to you within the Master's program Sociology. Like the three different tracks, three Double Degree programs with Italy, Spain and Germany, and the option to gain practical experience during the Extended Master.

ACTIVITIES

Campus Tour

Explore our green campus under the guidance of a student! Find out if Tilburg University's campus appeals to you and if you can envision yourself walking around there in the future. You will be guided in a group along with other visitors to explore the campus.

Information Fair

Visit the stands of all our Master's programs at the Information Fair between 13.00 – 14.00. Students, alumni, education coordinators and lecturers are happy to answer all your questions.

International Lounge

Explore the world of international education at the International Lounge in the CUBE building between 09.30 - 16.00. Connect with fellow prospective international students, ask international staff and students your questions, and discover what Tilburg University has to offer you as an international student!

Master's Career fair

Discover what Tilburg has to offer for the beginning of your career at the Master's Career fair! Between 12:00 and 15:00, you can engage in conversations with student organizations and experts about internships, traineeships, and transitioning to the job market. You'll also find our Student Career Services, Dual Career Officer, and Sports Center staff there. Learn more about talent development, career opportunities, and extracurricular activities alongside your Master's degree.

Meet & Greet

During the Meet & Greet, taking place in our International Lounge (CUBE building), you can have a one-on-one conversation with current international students, or members of the international team. Exchange experiences, get advice, and ask questions about the application and admission process. Limited spots are available, so be sure to reserve your spot and kickstart your journey at Tilburg University. See you there!
