PART 1     GENERAL

Chapter 1     General Provisions

Article 1.1     Applicability of the regulation

This regulation applies to the instruction and (preliminary) examination(s) of the following Master's programs:

Human Resource Studies,
Leisure Studies,
Organization Studies,
Psychologie en Geestelijke Gezondheid (Psychology and Mental Health),
Social Psychology
Sociology

henceforth to be called: "the programs". Some programs are preceded by a pre-master's program. This concerns Human Resource Studies, Leisure Studies, Organization Studies and Sociology. All programs are provided within the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences of Tilburg University, henceforth to be called "the School".

Article 1.2     Definitions of terms

In this regulation the following definitions apply:

1. The law: de wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek (WHW, "the higher education and academic research act");
2. Student: a person who has been registered at the university for receiving instruction and/or taking the (preliminary) examinations in one or more programs;
3. Course: an educational unit of the program, in the sense intended by the law;
4. Extra optional course: a course that can be chosen on top of the compulsory program;
5. Practical: a practical training, as referred to in article 7.13 of the law in one of the following modes:
  - writing a thesis;
  - writing an essay, paper or trial project;
  - executing a research assignment;
  - participating in fieldwork or an excursion;
  - attending a traineeship;
  - participating in any other instruction activity aimed at acquiring certain skills;
6. Pre-master's route: a route of instruction consisting of 60 ECTS credits to prepare a student for the master's program concerned;
7. Examination: the Bachelor's examination of the program;
8. Preliminary examination: examination of a particular course;
9. Test: a part of a preliminary examination;
10. Examination Board: a board established by the Dean of the Tilburg School of Social and Behavioral Sciences in correspondence with the law, article 7.12;
11. Examiner: person responsible for taking en evaluating (preliminary) exams;
12. Study unit: part of the academic year that divides the year into four parts. A study unit consists of a minimum of seven weeks of instruction followed by one or two weeks of examinations and re-examinations.
13. Academic year: time period starting about september the first, and ending about august, 31 of the following year;
14. Ects-credits: credit points in accordance with the European Credit Transfer System;

All other terms have to be understood in accordance with the law.

Article 1.3      Aim of the programs

After completion of the master's program the student possesses knowledge, insight and skills in the field of one of the program concerned. The aims of the programs are to be reached by the final goals formulated for each program.

Article 1.4      Form of the programs

All programs of the School are taught on a full-time basis.

Article 1.5      Examination of the programs

Each master's program is being concluded with a master's examination.

Article 1.6      Study load

1. The study load is expressed in ECTS credits.
2. The master's programs comprise a study load of 60 ECTS credits.
3. As a rule, the study load of the courses amounts to 6 ECTS credits per course.

Chapter 2      Pre-master programs

Article 2.1      Pre-master route

If students who wish to be admitted to one of the Master's programs of the School appear to have insufficient knowledge or skills to be directly admitted, they can be positioned in one of the pre-master's programs of TSB by the examination board that are being mentioned in articles 2.2 to 2.5 of this Regulation. A pre-master student will only acquire admission to the Master's program after having successfully completed his/her pre-master's program, with due regard of article 5.3 and 5.4.

Article 2.2      Individual pre-master's programs for Academic graduates

Students who have completed an academic program that does not connect sufficiently to one of the master's programs of the School, can be positioned by the examining board into an individual pre-master's program in order to raise possible deficiencies. The examining board determines the size and content of this pre-master's program, as well as the master's program to which it is related. As a rule, the study load of the programme will not exceed 60 ECTS credits.

Article 2.3      Standardized pre-master's programs for Higher Professional Education (HBO) graduates

The School offers a number of standard pre-master's programs for Higher Professional Education (HBO) graduates, that are related to the following master's programs:

- Human Resource Studies;
  - Organization Studies;
  - Sociology
1. The above-mentioned pre-master programs can be taken by any student having completed a four-year HBO program, as referred to in Part II of this Regulation, at the least.
  2. There is no pre-master's program for HBO-graduates in the field of Psychologie.
  3. In order to acquire admission to a master's program (as referred to in this article) for which the positioning into a pre-master's program is necessary, a written request has to be submitted to the examining board of the School. The examining board evaluates whether admission can be granted to the pre-master's program concerned, on the basis of the required HBO-certificate and the accompanying examination subjects list (if necessary provided through the list of marks).

Article 2.4 Pre-master programs for international students

For international students the School offers some pre-master programs in English. These programs are related to the following master's programs:

- Human Resource Studies;
  - Leisure Studies;
  - Organization Studies;
  - Sociology
1. In order to acquire admission to a master's program (as referred to in this article) for which the positioning into a pre-master's program is necessary, a written request has to be submitted to the examining board of the School. The Examining Board evaluates whether admission can be granted to the pre-master's program concerned, on the basis of the required certificate and the accompanying examination subjects list (if necessary provided through the list of marks).

Article 2.5 Connecting programs

1. The School has concluded agreements with the institutions for Higher Education, specifically mentioned in the next paragraphs of this article, concerning so-called connecting programs. These are special pre-master's programs, usually comprising 60 ECTS credits, that can be partially or completely taken by HBO students of the HBO institutions concerned during their HBO training.
2. Agreement with Avans Hogeschool: Academie voor Management en Bestuur in 's-Hertogenbosch and the Academie voor Algemeen en Financieel Management in Breda for admission to the master's program Organization Studies.
3. Agreement with Avans Hogeschool: Academie voor Management en Bestuur in 's-Hertogenbosch en de Academie voor Algemeen en Financieel Management in Breda for admission to the master's program Human Resource Studies.
4. Agreement with Avans Hogeschool: Academie for Social Studies in Breda for the programs Social Pedagogical Work, Social Work and Services, as well as Cultural and Social Education for admission to the master's program Sociology.
5. Agreement with Fontys Hogescholen Eindhoven, program Toegepaste Psychologie (Applied Psychology) for the admission to the master's programs Psychologie en Geestelijke Gezondheid or Social Psychology. This program which is integrated into student's third and fourth year of Toegepaste Psychologie comprises all of the bachelor's program Psychology of TSB.

Article 2.6 Composition of the pre-master's programs

The pre-master's programs, as referred to in articles 2.3, 2.4 and 2.5, comprise the courses and the accompanying study load, expressed in ECTS credits, that can be found in PART III of this regulation.

Article 2.7 Qualification for a pre-master's program

1. In order to qualify for one of the pre-master's programs, as referred to in article 2.3, one must possess the certificate of one of the corresponding HBO programs that are mentioned in PART II of this regulation.
2. In order to qualify for the pre-master's programs, as referred to in article 2.4, one must possess the certificate of one of the corresponding HBO programs that are mentioned in that article, first paragraph.
3. In order to qualify for one of the connecting programs, as referred to in article 2.5 paragraph 2 till 5, one has to be registered in one of the programs mentioned in that article and moreover have fulfilled the criteria as mentioned in the specific agreement. A selection of eligible students will be executed by representatives of the specific HBO institution and of the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Article 2.8      Practical

In as far as the courses of the pre-master's programs of the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences contain a practical in the way mentioned in article 1.2, paragraph 5, these practicals have been marked by the letter P in PART III of this regulation.

Article 2.9      English Language

1. In case of admission as referred to in article 2.4, one has to demonstrate a sufficient level of proficiency of the English language.
2. The requirement of sufficiently having mastered the English language, can be met by successfully taking the TOEFL, IELTS test, the Cambridge Advanced English-toets (CAE) of de Cambridge Proficiency in English-toets (CPE). The TOEFL test has been successfully concluded if one achieves a minimum score of 550 (paper based) or 80 (internet-based). The IELTS test has been successfully concluded if one achieves a minimum score of 6.0, whilst for none of the separate parts of the test a score lower than 5.5 is allowed. De CAE- of CPE-toets is met goed gevolg afgelegd wanneer een A, B of C is behaald.
3. In specific cases, the Examining Board can decide that the proficiency of the English language of a student who asks admission, meets the scores that are mentioned in the second paragraph, without the student having submitted proof of such.

Chapter 3      The master's programs

Article 3.1      Composition of the master's programs

The master's programs of the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences, discussed in this regulation, comprise the courses and accompanying study load, that can be found in PART IV of this regulation.

Article 3.2      Practical

In as far as the courses of the master's programs of the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences contain a practical in the way mentioned in article 1.2, paragraph 5, these practicals have been marked by the letter P in PART IV of this regulation.

Chapter 4      (Preliminary) Examinations of the programs

Article 4.1      Compulsory order

1. The master's program shall be concluded with a master's thesis. This thesis has a study load of at least 24 ECTS credits. In the master's programma Psychologie en Geestelijke Gezondheid the master's thesis comprises 18 ects credits.
2. Permission to commence one's master's thesis can only then be granted, if the Individueel Onderzoeksvoorstel (Individual Research Proposal) had been successfully concluded.
3. A director of a master's program can decide that admission to the master's thesis can only be acquired by obtaining a minimum number of ECTS credits. The amount of ECTS credits to be obtained shall not exceed the number of 12 ECTS credits. An entry requirement, as described here above, can only be imposed if the master's program has at least a second starting moment, in any case at the beginning of the academic year, besides the usual

- starting moment at the beginning of the spring semester.
4. Courses of each master program are only accessible to students who are enrolled for that master's, unless the Schools director has determined otherwise, and this has been published in the course information in the electronic guide.
  5. As far as specific entry demands for taking a course are requested, these will be mentioned in the Electronic Guide (ESG).
  6. Students who have been positioned in a pre-master program as referred to in article 2.3, paragraph 1 must have successfully concluded all courses of the pre-master program, in order to take any preliminary examinations of the master program, with the exception of 12 ECTS credits at the most. Among the not successfully concluded courses, there may be not more than one course MTO (Methodology).
  7. Furthermore, students who have been positioned in a pre-master program must have successfully concluded the course Testimonium Wiskunde (Mathematics test) in order to be able to conclude the course MTO-1 pre-master. If the course Testimonium Wiskunde has not been successfully concluded and for this reason one cannot conclude MTO-1 pre-master, a student will not be permitted to take any preliminary examinations of the master program.
  8. Notwithstanding paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article, students who have been positioned in an individual pre-master program according to article 2.2 or in a pre-master program as referred to in article 2.4 of this regulation, must have successfully concluded all courses of this program before they will have permission to take any preliminary examinations of the master program, unless the program comprises exactly 60 ECTS credits. In this case, paragraphs 5 and 6 will apply.
  9. When extraordinary circumstances have occurred the examining board can make exemptions to the regulation of paragraph 4, 5, 6 and 7 of this article.

Article 4.2      Periods and frequency of (preliminary) examinations

1. The opportunity to take preliminary examinations in the courses listed in part III and IV is provided twice a year in every academic year in which the course in question is offered.
2. The first opportunity to take a preliminary examination for a course will take place immediately after the study unit in which a course is offered.
3. The second opportunity to take a preliminary examination for a course will take place during or immediately after the study unit following the study unit in which a course is offered, except for study unit 4. The second opportunity of the preliminary examinations of the fourth study unit follows immediately after the second opportunity for the third study unit. The results of the first opportunity of a preliminary examination of a course must be published well before the date set (at least 5 working days) for the second opportunity of the same course.
4. Regarding the dates on which preliminary examinations and resits shall be taken the following applies:
  - a) The dates of written examinations and resits will be determined by the Education and Research Institute (ERI) and published in the Electronic Guide (ESG), ultimately at the beginning of the academic year.
  - b) The dates of oral examinations and resits will be determined through mutual consent between the instructor and the student concerned.
  - c) With regard to handing in assignments or papers that are part of a preliminary examination, the instructor will determine two dates for doing so (in accordance with the two opportunities a student has for the successful completion of a course). The dates of handing-in will be published in a manner that is clear to all students. The data must at last take place within the periods specified in paragraph 2 of this Article.
5. The fourth paragraph, under c) of this article also applies to the master's thesis, with the understanding that the instructor may appoint the second opportunity for handing in the thesis in August.

Article 4.3      Form of the preliminary examinations

1. In most cases, the preliminary examinations of courses listed in part III and IV are in the form of written preliminary examinations. A written preliminary examination can also take the form of a written assignment, a paper or essay, as well as an examination consisting of both written and oral elements.
2. For each course the exact form of examination is determined in the Electronic Guide (ESG). Ultimately at the start of the course the examiner announces additions or alterations of the examination in the Electronic Guide (ESG).
3. At the student's request, the examining board can in special cases allow a preliminary examination to be taken in a manner different from the announcement in the Electronic Guide (ESG).
4. Students with functional disorders are given the opportunity to take the preliminary examinations in ways that are adapted to their individual handicaps as much as possible. In the case this requires special facilities for taking an examination or a special form of examination, the student must submit a request to the University's Digital Reporting Point Functional Disorders.

Article 4.4 Oral preliminary examinations

1. At oral preliminary examinations no more than one person at a time is given an examination, unless the examining board has decided otherwise. With the approval of the examinees concerned an examiner may decide that a certain oral preliminary examination will be taken by then together.
2. An oral preliminary examination is held in public, unless, in a special case, the examining board or the examiner in question has decided otherwise, or if the student has raised an objection.
3. Oral examinations are being taken on a date to be determined by the examiner(s), if possible after consulting the examinee.

Article 4.5 Duration of the preliminary examination

The duration of written preliminary examinations is three hours, unless the examiner responsible publishes or gives instructions to publish otherwise before the beginning of the examination, and it has been announced otherwise on the instruction page of the preliminary examination. The duration of any preliminary examination will be such that examinees will have sufficient time for responding to all questions of the examination, judged by reasonable standards.

Article 4.6 Registration

1. Registration for a preliminary examination takes place at the Student Administration. This registration takes place in accordance with the guidelines determined by the Student Administration.
2. The examining board can allow exceptions to the stipulation of the first paragraph concerning the place where and time before which the registration must have taken place.

Article 4.7 Determination and publication of the results of a preliminary examination

1. Immediately after the oral examination has been held the examiner determines the result and provides the Student Administration with the necessary information regarding the result. The examiner hands the student an authentic copy.
2. The examiner determines the result of a written preliminary examination within 15 working days after the day on which the examination has taken place.
3. The Student Administration will provide for a correct registration of the result within a period of 5 working days.
4. With respect to preliminary examinations other than oral or written preliminary examinations the examining board may determine in advance in what way and within what period the

- student will receive a certificate pertaining to the result.
5. Results of preliminary examinations, published on any bulletin board, by means of Blackboard Course-Info (Learning system) or otherwise will always be provisional.
  6. The official result of a written preliminary examination is made available on the Internet, on the Student's Portal of Tilburg University, under "check study results".
  7. When the result of a preliminary examination is being announced to the student he will also receive notice of his right to inspect his examination, as well as the right to appeal at the Examination Appeals Board.

Article 4.8          Period of Validity

1. As a rule, completed courses retain unlimited validity.
2. Notwithstanding the first paragraph the examining board may impose a complementary of substitute preliminary examination if a course has been completed more than five years ago, prior to allowing the student to take the bachelor's examination.
3. Regarding the periode of validity of an exemption of a course, paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article apply.
4. If an instructor wishes to impose a period of validity to a test (partial examination) (for which, in accordance with the law, he is authorized) the actual period of validity must be announced ultimately at the beginning of the instructions of the course to which the test belongs.

Article 4.9          Right of inspection

1. During 15 working days after the publication of the result of a writtem preliminary examination, a student may inspect his examined work on request. He may also request a copy of his work at cost price.
2. During the period mentioned in the first paragraph of this article, a student may take cognizance of the questions and assignments of the preliminary examination in question, as well as the standards applied in the assessment.
3. The examiner determines a fixed time and place for the inspection or cognizance. If the party concerned can prove that force majeure prevented him from appearing at that particular time and place, he will be offered another opportunity, if possible within the period mentioned in the first paragraph.

Article 4.10      Exemption

1. At the student's request the examination board can exempt a student from a preliminary examination of a course, if the student
  - either has already successfully completed a course of an academic or higher professional program whose content, level and studyload sufficiently resembles the course in question;
  - either proves by working or professional experiences to sufficiently possess the knowledge and skills concerning the course in question.
2. In as far as the exemptions, mentioned in the first paragraph of this article, have been granted on the basis of successfully concluded course outside Tilburg University, they shall not exceed a maximum of 18 ECTS credits per student.
3. An exemption from completing the master's thesis shall never be granted.
4. A request for an exemption of taking a preliminary examination must be submitted to the examining board in writing and well motivated.
5. Unless a request must be rejected on formal grounds, the examining board will hear the examiner(s) concerned before deciding on the request made.
6. A negative regulation on the request made will be motivated.
7. A request for an exemption for a course must be ultimately submitted in the third week of the period or semester in which the course is being offered. If a request is being submitted after the third week, it shall not be taken under advisement.

Article 4.11 Determination of the result of the examination

1. The result of the master's examination shall only then be determined if the student has successfully passed the bachelor's examination on the basis of which admission to the master's program in question has been acquired.
2. If the student has been positioned in a pre-master program as part of their master's program, all courses of this pre-master program must be successfully completed before the result of the master's examination can be determined.
3. If a student has taken a program elsewhere, of which the certificate entitles to be admitted to the master's program in question, all courses of that program must be completed, before the result of the master's examination can be determined.

Article 4.12 Optional subjects

1. Optional subjects that are not a part of the compulsory program of the master, can be mentioned on the master's certificate, if these subjects belong to a master's program. As a rule no prior permission of the examining board is required in order to take a free optional subject into one's examination program. However, prior permission of the examining board is required if one wants to take a free optional subject that is being offered by a international university.
2. Notwithstanding to that which is stipulated in paragraph 1 the School is not responsible for actual admission to courses of other Schools or Universities. The student must find out for himself whether he will be admitted to the course in question.
3. When choosing an optional course students must take into account that some courses will be offered at the same moment or that the examination of certain courses will take place at the same time. Concerning this, the student must take responsibility him/herself.

Article 4.13 Degree

1. Those who have passed the master's examination are granted the degree "Master of Science (followed by the name of the program in question)".
2. The degree conferred will be registered on the certificate of the examination.

Chapter 5 Preliminary training and admission to master's programs

Article 5.1 Admission committee

1. Admission to a master's program is assigned to the admission committee of the master's program in question. The members of examining board constitute this committee.
2. The admission committee decides on the admission of all students of the master's programs to which this regulation applies (see article 1.1).

Article 5.2 Preliminary training and eligibility

1. A master's program has one starting moment, namely approximately september 1th, every year. In order to be admitted to a master's program the admission requirements, as mentioned in the following paragraphs, must be met before September first.
2. Admissible to the teaching and examinations of the master's program are only those students who are registered for the relevant Master's program unless the Schools director in the electronic studyguide has indicated that participation to the course without registration is granted

16. Additionally, the category of students referred to in the previous paragraph must satisfy any further requirements determined by the admission committee.

Article 5.3 Admission without having completed preliminary training

1. In case of special circumstances, as referred to in the second paragraph of this article, a departure of article 5.2 can be granted, or a student will yet be given the opportunity to fulfill the requirements of admission for the master's program, if and insofar as the special circumstances have directly led to a study delay and the student has not yet obtained no more than 12 ects of the connecting Bachelor's program or Pre-master's program and must have fulfilled any other admission requirements, as mentioned in the fourth paragraph of this article.
2. The following personal circumstances of the student concerned will be exclusively taken into account: a. Illness; b. Physical, sensory or other functional disorders; c. Pregnancy and delivery; d. Special family circumstances; e. an elite sportstatus as granted by the Executive board; f. Membership, including chairpersonship, of the University Council, the School's Council, the program committee concerned; g. any other position or combination of positions on a board supported by a university grant with a minimum of four months; the status of top-class sportsman, as recognized by the Executive Board;
3. The special circumstances, as mentioned under a to d, will exclusively taken into consideration, if these have been reported within two months after their come into being to the dean of students by the student himself or on behalf of the student; special circumstances as mentioned under e to g will only be taken into consideration if these have been reported to the Dean of students as soon as possible. Proof of the existence of special circumstances has to be provided by the student himself or on his behalf in writing
4. An appeal on special circumstances can only be granted if all courses of the connecting bachelor's program or (individual) pre-master's program have been successfully passed, with the exception of 12 ects at the most. The courses that have not yet successfully been completed may not comprise more than one MTO course and furthermore, as from the bachelor's cohort 2010/11, neither the bachelor's thesis. In all cases, in as far as applicable, the Wiskunde Testimonium must have been successfully passed.

Article 5.4 Admission inquiry: procedure

1. A request to be admitted to a master's program can be submitted to the admission committee at any moment during the academic year, but the actual start of a program will always be approximately September 1th of the year.
2. The admission committee takes a decision on an admission request within six weeks after it has been submitted.
3. Considering the admission, as referred to in article 5.2, paragraph 9, the admission committee makes an inquiry into the knowledge, insight and skills of the candidate. To complement written proof of the training program(s) of the candidate, the committee may decide to have certain knowledge and skills tested by experts within or outside the university.
4. With regard to the admission inquiry, as referred to in paragraph 3 of this article, international students must, in case of an English master's program, present proof that one has successfully completed the TOEFL, IELTS test, the Cambridge Advanced English-toets (CAE) or the Cambridge Proficiency in English-toets (CPE). For the TOEFL test this means a minimum score of 577 (paper based) or 90 (internet based). For the IELTS test this means a minimum score of 6,5, whilst for none of the separate parts of the test a score lower than 6.0 is allowed. The CAE- or CPE test has been successfully passed if an A, B or C has been obtained.

5. The requirement of sufficient mastering the Dutch language – in case of the admission to a Dutch master's program based on a international certificate - is met if one disposes of the following certificates:
  - State examination Dutch as a second language program II;
  - Certificate Dutch as a international language, Profile Academic Language Proficiency or Profile Language Proficiency Higher Education;
  - "Zeugnis der Allgemeinen Hochschulreife" at the condition that the subject Dutch has been taken to the year of the final examination (mostly year 12) inclusive;
  - Tilburg University's institutional examination for German native speaking persons.
6. Admission is granted subject to the condition that the candidate, at the latest on the starting date of the program, meets the requirements, referred to in paragraph 4 and 5 of this article, with respect to knowledge and skills as evidenced by the certificates of the training programs attended.
7. In specific cases, the Examining Board can decide that the proficiency of the English language of a student who asks admission, meets the scores that are mentioned in article 5.4, fourth paragraph, without the student having submitted proof of such.
8. In specific cases, supplementary demands concerning the English or Dutch proficiency can be imposed on students who have met the requirements as referred to in article 5.4, fourth or fifth paragraph.
9. In the written statement with respect to admission, the student is alerted to the possibility of appeal to the examination appeals board.

Article 5.5 Registration after the start of the academic year

In accordance with Article 4 of the Regulation Registration and Tuition Fee (2013-2014), students who want to register for a specific master's program at a later moment than the official start of the academic year or the start of the program in question, have to get permission of the Executive Board of Tilburg University. As part of the decision process the Board will request of the School or the examining board to hand a written declaration that registration at this stage does not come across any didactic objections. The School or the examining board that finds that the student cannot fit in anymore into the program at that point, has to be give reasons for this in writing. Within a period of six weeks a written objection can be submitted against a dismissive decision at the Examination Appeals Board.

Chapter 6 Program Counseling

Article 6.1 Study progress administration

1. The Student Administration registers the students' individual course results.
2. The Student Administration supervises the accessibility of the study progress data on the Internet, as well as the information on this matter.

Article 6.2 Counseling

1. The School ensures sufficient counseling regarding the master's program for which a student is registered. The School assigns this task to the Educational and Research Institute or the Departments in charge of the master's program.
2. ERI produces for each student a study progress report after each study unit or semester. In order to locate possible causes of study delay and contribute to remedy this, study progress conversations are being held between representatives of the ERI or the Department responsible for the bachelor's program in question and students experiencing study delay.

3. If the University has granted the status of top-class sportsman/woman to a student registered in one of the master's programs of the School, the School will try to support this student in practising his/her sport, within reasonably attainable boundaries, by providing additional counselling and facilities with regard to tests and preliminary examinations, as well as exemption from specific obligations within the program. Students to whom the top-class sportstatus has been granted and who wish to use any of these facilities, have to contact the School Academic Advisor at the beginning of the academic year at the latest, in order to draw up a studyplan.

Chapter 7 Transitional and final provisions

Article 7.1 Transitional provisions

1. For all courses of the Teaching and Examination Regulation of the academic year 2021-2013 that will expire at the beginning of the academic year 2013-2014 and for which no replacements in accordance with this Regulation have been pointed out, at least one opportunity to take a preliminary examination will be offered in the academic year 2013-2014. An overview of these courses is presented in PART V of this regulation. Only those students that have taken this opportunity and have not yet successfully concluded such a course, can apply for possible additional resits thereafter.
2. Any student who has not yet successfully concluded a course after the last opportunity for a preliminary examination has taken place, must, for the continuation of his program, replace this course by a course of the corresponding new program, in accordance to the transition schedule that can be found in PART V of this regulation.

Article 7.3 General severity clause

In case of the occurrence of iniquities of a preponderant nature, in individual cases the Examination Board is entitled to make an exception to the Teaching and Examination Regulation.

Article 7.4 Changes

1. Changes of this Regulation will be determined by the Dean by means of separate decrees, after hearing the program committee, the managing director of the program concerned, and the Examination Board and after consultation of the School council.
2. A change of this Regulation may not concern the present academic year, unless this does not unreasonably impair the interests of students.
3. A change of this Regulation cannot impair any other decision that has previously been taken in accordance with this Regulation regarding a specific student.

Article 7.6 Publication

1. The Dean takes care of a suitable announcement of this Regulation, of the rules and guidelines laid down by the examining board, and of any change of these documents.
2. Through the School's Web pages, any interested person can take cognizance of the documents referred to in the first paragraph.

Article 7.7 Date of commencement

This Regulation comes into operation September 1, 2013.

Laid down by the Dean, May 30th, 2012.
