

TIBER 2017 Symposium on Psychology and Economics

The Tilburg Institute for Behavioral Economics Research is happy to announce the TIBER 2017 Symposium on Psychology and Economics, to be held on August 25, 2017.

The symposium aims to bring together Economists, Psychologists, Marketing researchers and others who work on Behavioral Decision Making, either in individual or interdependent settings. The symposium consists of two keynotes, a number of parallel sessions with presentations of about 20-30 minutes, and a poster session.

We are proud to present Ralph Hertwig (Max Planck Institute for Human Development) and Bertil Tungodden (Norwegian School of Economics) as this year's keynote speakers.

The goal of this series of symposia is to establish contact and discussion between researchers of the different fields. We look for empirical contributions from diverse fields, such as Individual Decision Making, Consumer Behavior, Bargaining, Social Dilemmas, Experimental Games, Emotions, Fairness and Justice, Rational Choice, and related subjects.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

If you would like to contribute to TIBER by presenting your research, we invite you to submit an abstract of max. 250 words via our website: www.tilburguniversity.edu/tiber2017.

On the basis of these abstracts we will select presenters for the symposium.
